

This year, to inspire our christmas writing, we planned for the Touring Theatre Company to come into our school and perform 'Aladdin'. However, due to Covid 19, we have had to reschedule for next year. Therefore, we decided that Years 3 to Years 6 would watch the Movie Aladdin (2019).

'A kind-hearted street urchin Aladdin vies for the love of the beautiful princess Jasmine, the princess of Agrabah. When he finds a magic lamp, he uses the genie's magic power to make himself a prince in order to marry her. He's also on a mission to stop the powerful Jafar who plots to steal the magic lamp that could make his deepest wishes come true'

Here are what some of our students said about the film:

Kai- "I liked it because it contained a lot of action and drama"

Oscar- "I liked it because it had a lot of humorous moments"

Mia- "I liked it because it gave me a lot of ideas about my writing!"

Look at some of our Amazing work across years 3 to years 6:

Jasmine

An elaborate, kind painted princess, Jasmine wore her dark hair tied up away from her face to show her beauty. Her eyes were like brightening the sky, they glowed even more when Aladdin was around. Unlike the sun, her eyes were light velvet brown. Jasmine's warm smile and kind words often left people's spirits, showing her grace and respectfulness. Jasmine wore dresses covered in bright jewels and studded in gold helping her dress to shine as bright as her eyes. You may think that because Jasmine is from a rich family she is vain and uncaring but in reality she is kind, caring and helps the poor. She is one for a warm hearted thing (Aladdin) to help her stand for the values of Agrabah's people poor and to help her become queen.

Jaggar

Jaggar (Aladdin's good enemy) is brutal, power hungry and uncaring. Although he is the royal vizier of Agrabah, it does not stop him from showing his true cruel personality which is sacrificing people and plotting evil plans. His eyes are like the fire in a blazing furnace and when you look into his eye you feel like you're about to die. If he had his vicious blood covered all over it making it look red.

Jasmine

A cute warm-hearted princess Jasmine, wore her dark coloured hair tied up away from her beautiful smile. Her eyes were like chocolate brownies and beamed with warmth like a candle in the dark. They shone like the bright sun whenever the generous prince (Aladdin) showed up. Jasmine's warm smile and kind words often lifted up everyone's spirit, showing her generosity and beauty. Jasmine, who was from a rich background, wore stunning, beautiful, jewelled dresses that showed her richness. Despite her coming from wealthy, posh family, and her fancy appearance, Jasmine is an extremely extremely determined, kind and justless future Sultan. Overtime, Jasmine and Aladdin love built up then the pretty princess became Sultan and broke the rule of a princess marrying a prince.

Jabar

The cold-hearted Vizier (Jabar) is dark-minded. He sacrificed people who work for him. His eyes are a path to hell. The eyes of this cruel villain are more evil than fire burning. His coat is like he's wearing his victims blood.

 • How can I create sympathy towards a character?

Steps to Success:
 -I can use high level vocabulary to describe a character.
 -I can create sympathy through descriptive language techniques
 -I can use show not tell.

Can I still: Use high levelled adjectives?

Jasmine - kind-hearted, stylish, attractive, elegant, caring, independent, graceful, generous, thoughtful, caring, considerate.

Paraphrase: ...caring, kind-hearted princess, all is love with an experienced they...

Her ...long, black hair ^① ...down her back and ...across her shoulders like ...ink-black eyelashes ...beautiful, shimmering brown eyes and her ...elegant earrings ...from her ears. Her ...cloak, that glows like a star of beauty ...down her back followed by her ...hair. Her ...orange and rose pink gown ...like diamonds in the moonlight ...gazed at her natural beauty.

① does delicate ② as, which was as clean as a soap.

JAFAR

Jafar, a cunning, vile adviser to the Sultan, is a malicious demon who will assassinate anyone who stands in his way of executing his savage plans. This demonic creature has a large feathered top hat, above his psychopathic eyes, which flame with fury and anger. Regardless to his royalty his only cares about himself and attempts to over throw anyone superior to him. Even though, his attempts have all failed, he still tries to destroy Agrabah (his home city) for power and wealth. His vicious plans are to over throw every kingdom, until no-one is left to stand in his way. With this fury, his cloak covers his fangs as his monstrous nails bend like snakes and are daggers on his fingers.

Jasmine (a warm-hearted princess) can be the most Jasmine, an elegant, warm-hearted princess, had the most charming voice you could ever hear. Her clothes had a silky pattern with shimmering sequins, glittering in the light. Her eyes, which were ① that glittered sparkling chips of obsidian, sparkling sparkled with kindness each time you gazed. Her sleek, glossy hair ~~was intricately~~ intricately plaited and fell like a jet black waterfall over her shoulders. It was like ② cascaded an Arabian light.

Fun days in Agrabah

Magical Carpet Soaring through the Sky!

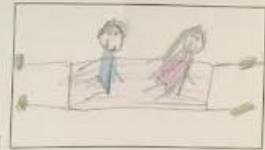

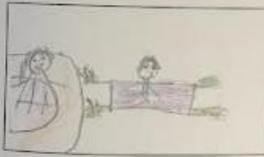

Earlier this day, we spoke to the spectators who saw the whole thing. They reported seeing a mysterious carpet flying through the pitch black sky of Agrabah. I was sleeping soundly when suddenly I heard a hissing sound and woke up. In one second, I rushed to the sound proof window to see what was happening. I could't hear anything but least I could see something.

On Monday, Jasmine hesitated for go on the magic carpet. On Tuesday she slowly stepped on the mystical carpet like a queen. This was a miracle. Have you ever seen a prince and a princess soaring through the sky on a magnificent carpet in Agrabah in the evening. So obviously it is reported that the amazing princess Jasmine really enjoyed this moment with the brave Aladdin.

When I saw the real name was Aladdin.

Have you ever seen a magic carpet flying over Agrabah! This is a very rare event. We expected the people of Agrabah to be so shocked they couldnt control themselves for a week.

I think Aladdin is just made for Jasmine. I think they will marry very soon. The wedding is going to be prepared.

We spoke to her father and he reported that he didn't see this happen but she told me all about it. I couldnt believe her but I believed her when I saw the magic carpet.

Once upon a time, I was visiting my Granny and Granddaddy. They didn't have a wife toy, so I was tremendously bored. I decided to look around their huge house. After a few minutes, I found a dusty old lamp on a shelf. It looked like the dust was and it started to glow. I dropped it in surprise and a Genie came out. He was a peculiar colour, blue. I was shocked then the Genie introduced himself. He gave me three wishes.

For my first wish I want the environment to be saved so I say "Genie, I want the to be saved". "Is that your first wish," replied the Genie. "Remember you need to say the words 'I wish' in each wish." There was a puff of blue smoke and slowly but surely plastic that was in the sea was disappearing. I was really happy that the sea was cleaner.

For my second wish I want some toys because my you know its very boring so I say "I wish to have some toys" and in a puff of smoke a huge toybox appeared in front of me. I'm very excited and begone I wish for my third wish I play with my new amazing toys.

Eventually I decide to move on to my third wish. For my my third wish I wish to set the Genie free so I say "I wish for you to be free." The Genie was astonished, nobody had ever wished for the Genie to be free. In a puff of smoke the Genie turned into a human. He was free.

I invited the Genie to stay and live with me, then I put the lamp back where I found it. After that I sat down and played with my toys. I was definitely not bored.
