REMEMBERING ARMISTICE DAY AT THE LEYS!

Today our pupils all took part in the two minute silence to show respect for Armistice Day. Over the week our display for Remembrance Day has grown day after day as pupils across the school have bought in their half term homework. The display looks amazing! Thank you everyone!

It's the Stone Age in Year 3!!!

Today William came to show me his model of a stone age village. He was telling me that in those times people talked in a different language, and they lived in caves. They also played music using bones. Then along came Evangeline to show me her amazing poster!! Well done both of you, I am pleased you are enjoying your topic!

As it was bonfire night at the beginning of the week, the children have been discussing why personal safety is so important. There were lots of discussions about how to keep safe and why we have rules. Some of the children have also learned about the history of bonfire night and who Guy Fawkes was.

Also this week, every class has been thinking about Remembrance Day. The children have reflected upon the significance of the day and the symbolism of poppies. Each class has spent some time creating poppies using a variety of materials as well as writing poems, factual and creative pieces about Remembrance Day. Some of these amazing pieces of work from across the school have been brought together to create a beautiful shared display.

CLASS: Year 6

This week on Monday the Year 6 pupils who stayed at school made homemade pizza which tasted amazing! We also made some World war 1 memorial art with the poppies. On Tuesday we had a French morning making croissants, and played French games to improve our knowledge of French; that day we also did explosive science and a multiplication treasure hunt! On Wednesday we went to Circles Café at Great Ashby and we had hot chocolate and a cookie, followed by the Mathematical Murder Mystery. On Thursday we had another trip where we visited Lonsdale School to take part in a multi-schools Art Project, and when we came back we watched a movie in our pyjamas! Today we are having a relaxing day and we are looking forward to seeing all our friends on Monday! I really enjoyed this week and wish we could do it again soon!!!
