Wellbeing Champions Kindness Challenge - Last week the new Well Being Champions met together for the first time. We discussed strategies to support their own and class mates' well being. This week children are taking part in the NSPCC's Kindness Challenge and we are trying to see which classes can complete 100 acts of kindness! If you would like to donate money to the NSPCC and help fund Childline, an essential support for many children please see the link below.

Thank You

We'd like to say a HUGE Thank you to Shaorma La Dennis Food Truck (located outside Primark in Stevenage town centre), for their incredibly generous cash donation to our school.

Please see details from Future Ballers LTD. They will be hosting a football camp at our school during the October half term. This camp will be delivered by Mr Newlands through his company, Future Ballers LTD ⚽

To book a place or for more information on the camp, please refer to the contact details on the flyer ⚽

Are you experiencing domestic abuse?

You are not alone

We are experiencing a large volume of calls related to survivors requiring assistance with obtaining a non-molestation order, this is not something we directly support with, we will offer signposting to alternative support services. For advice and support in regard to obtaining non-molestation orders and legal advice, please contact Rights of Women. If you do wish to speak to us about domestic abuse, safety planning, advice and support then please do call us on 0808 2000 247 or utilise our Live Chat to speak to an Advisor for support.
